

The Fraser Recognition Award

"The Women in Surf Fraser Recognition Award recognises a female who has made a significant and positive impact to the advancement of women in the Surf lifesaving arena."

Essential Criteria:

This award will recognise an individual's contribution that has enhanced the development of Surf Lifesaving. The demonstrated achievements may be in a range of different areas of a club or surf lifesaving service organisation, or who has shown demonstrated outstanding service to the Surf Lifesaving movement at large.

A nominee may be, or have been, a volunteer in any area of surf lifesaving including, but not limited to:

- Club activities
- Carnivals
- Coaching
- Administrating
- Junior activities
- Branch/state/ national activities
- Training/assessing
- Active patrolling
- Officiating

Nominee Details:

Name:

Club Membership:

Address:

Contact:

Email:

Nominator Details:

Name:

Club Membership:

Address:

Contact:

Email:

Selection Criteria 1:

Describe the nominee's contribution to surf lifesaving at any level in one or more areas.

Selection Criteria 2:

Outline the nominee's achievements and positions, held at Club, Branch, State or National level.

Selection Criteria 3:

Illustrate any challenges that the nominee has overcome to make a significant difference to their Club or organisation.

Selection Criteria 4:

Outline a key change or improvement that the nominee has brought or made to their club or organisation.

Selection Criteria 5:

Demonstrated that she has made a positive and measurable impact to the advancement of Surf lifesaving.

Please return this form via email, to:
administrator@palmbeachsurfclub.com.au by 11 October 2019
