Surf Life Saving Queensland is excited to host the first Chief Training Officers and Club Captains Workshop. This Workshop has been designed to further develop your capacity within your role, via tactile learning approach. As your Clubs representative we, here by formally invite you to this workshop.

The Workshop will be held from Friday 11th August 2023 to Sunday 13th August 2023 at Sea World Resort, Gold Coast QLD.

What to expect

Friday 11th August 2023 – Welcome lunch at The Hangar, guest speakers and operational scenarios.

Saturday 12th August 2023 – Beach training sessions for Club CTOs and Captains and dinner

Sunday 13th August 2023 – Group workshops and discussions, followed by farewell.

Who should attend

The Workshop is open to all Club CTO's and Captains for the 2023/24 Season. With AGM's not taking place for a few more weeks, those that will be new appointees to these roles, your spot has been accounted for with travel bookings and workshop arrangements. If you're unable to attend the workshop, please contact your Regional Coordinators and Supervisors.

The Program

- Over 3 days the program has been designed to address the needs of CTO and Club Captains. SLSQ has ensured that the topics covered are directly related to each Club.
- The theme behind the program has been "Thinking outside the box" and professional development.
- Sessions are to provide information to specific roles within clubs or branches, showcase best practices, share knowledge and discuss the future of Lifesaving and Education.
- Time has been allocated for networking, and catching up with friends old and new at dinners that will be hosted.
- Guest speakers will be announced soon – watch this space!
